NEW DIRECTOR IN CONSEJO CIUDADANO DE SEGURIDAD Y JUSTICIA

Consejo Ciudadano de Seguridad y Justicia welcomes Mario Erik Torres Gutiérrez as the new Director; we wish him the greatest success so that we can work together for a better Chihuahua.

"I am honored to join this civil society organization and be part of this great team. My priority is to strengthen and consolidate the actions carried out by CCSJ for the benefit of our society" the new director mentioned.

THE SERIGRAPHY WORKSHOP IN CCSJ JUAREZ BEGINS

The serigraphy workshop was opened for young participants of the Creemos en Ti program, thanks to the support of Instituto Chihuahuense de la Juventud (Chihuahua Youth Institute). The workshop will last five weeks, during which they will be able to develop techniques and tools, which will be a future door that will allow them to be employed.

THE WORKSHOP "EFFECTIVE PARENTS WITH SYSTEMATIC TRAINING" STARTS AT NCG

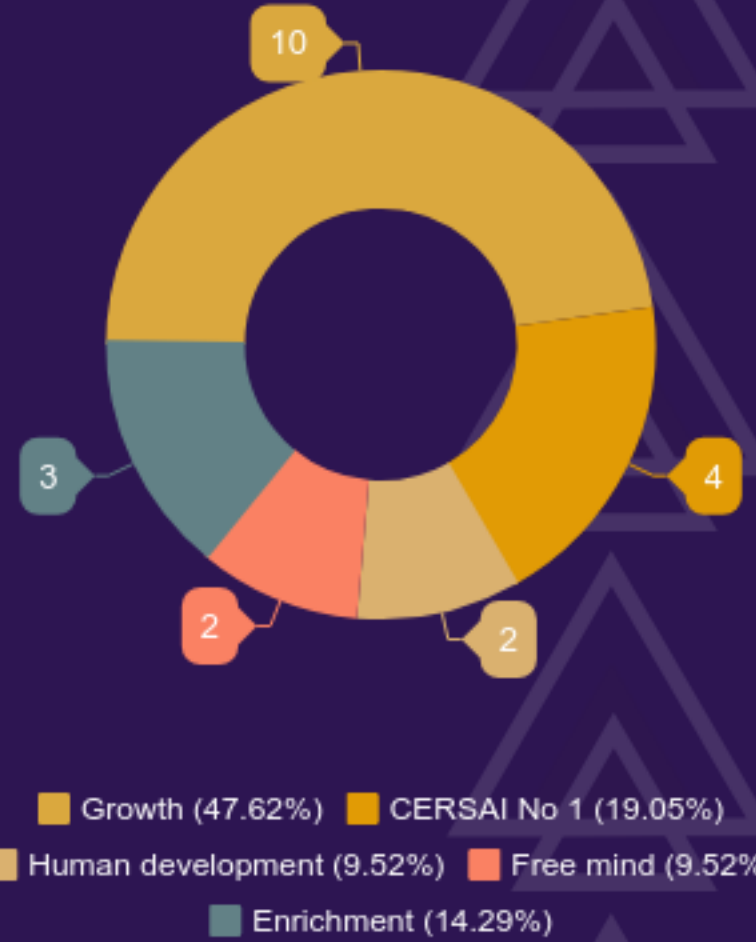

The workshop, "Effective Parents with Systematic Training," begins for fathers and mothers of young people from the Creemos en Ti program and the general public. The workshop will be taught by the Onéami association: Parents' School in collaboration with CCSJ. This aims to provide tools that will allow them to exercise a more effective and violence-free perspective in their parental roles.
